Why is this Presbyterian smiling? ...because she knows that More Light Presbyterians is working for her equality.

The Presbyterian Church is a great place to be, but it still doesn't treat its lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) members equally. Outdated policies and discriminatory rules place barriers in the way of LGBT people when they try to serve the Church. It's time for us to change that. Your financial support of More Light Presbyterians, the oldest gay rights group in the denomination, brings us closer to the day when all of us can fully participate in the life of the Presbyterian Church USA.
