

Though the Spirit's Gifts are Many

A prize winning hymn in the Macaester Plymouth United Church Hymn Contest, 2002

TUNE: Hyfrydol, Rowland H. Prichard (1811-1887)

TEXT: © David Gambrell, 2002

1. Though the Spir - it's gifts are man - y, there is one em -
2. Let no mor - tal stand in judge - ment when the Spir - it
3. Call the young and old to - geth - er, put the part - ners

brac - ing call; Man - y vi - sions, man - y tal - ents calls to serve; Let no pow - er seek to si - lence hand in hand, Speak with lib - er - a - ting pow - er, in the One who loves us all. Faith and wis - dom, God's e - ter - nal liv - ing Word. We are child - ren tell the truth to all the land: Christ is ris - en!

hope and prom - ise, who we are and how we love -- of the prom - ise, liv - ing in the light of grace, Christ is ris - en! Earth and heav - en now re - joice;

These are gifts from our Cre - a - tor,
Work - ing for a new cre - a - tion
Sing a song of love and wel - come

these are bless - ings from a - bove.
where all peo - ple have a place.
with your Spir - it - giv - en voice.

© Text copyright 2002 by David Gambrell, 708 E. 47th Street, Austin, TX 78751. All rights reserved. Used by permission. Congregations of the Presbytery of the Twin Cities Area (PC/USA) and Eastern Association (MN) of the United Church of Christ (UCC) may use this hymn freely through February, 2004. After March 1, 2004, permission must be secured from the author.